WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—After the reading of the House Journal this morn-Some ing Mr. Haines (Dem., N. Y.) made the point of no quorum, and the Speaker

This was in Lursuance of a policy deto fillbuster against an order from the debate and authorizing the offering of the Internal Revenue bill as an amendment to the Tariff bill.

The call developed the presence of 181 members, however, and the fillbuster came to an ignominious collapse.

The Speaker recognized Mr. Outhwaite (Dem., O.), from the Committee on Rules, who reported the special order as fol-who reported the special order as follows:

Resolved. That the order providing for the consideration of House Bill 4.84 (the Tariff bill) be a mended that said bill be reported to the House from the Committee on Thursday, the first of Monday, the 25th inst. and when so reported three hours of debate will be allowed; and that on Monday morning, the 25th lined, a soon as the House is resolved into the Committee of the Whole, and not before that time, it shall be in order to offer as an amendment to the pending bill House Hill 5.42 (the Income Tax bill), reported from the Committee on Ways and Means that said amendment shall be open to general debate during Monday and Tuesday, and thereafter to consideration under the five-minute rule (unless sooner disposed of until the bill (House bill 4.84) is reported to the House; that all provisions of the original order as to daily hour of meeting, as to night assators, and all other matters pot incomisient with this amendment are continued up to and including Thursday, Feb. 1 1891.

Mr. Catchings demanded the previous question. The opponents of the income tax realized their helplessness, and did frot even make a show of resistance.

Mr. Cockran (Dem. N. Y.) suggested a slight modification of the order, so as to close general debate on the internal revenue amendment on Tuesday. To the other terms of the order he had no objections.

resistance," said he, "against both the friends and enemies of the main bill, Examinations in New York and who have united on this income tax proposition, and this slight modification (Dem., Ala.) to the lumber schedule was lost, as was that of Mr. Boutelle (Rep., Me.) which proposed to substitute the McKinley low rates.

The amendments to the lead and zinc schedule proposed by Mr. Morgan (Dem., Mo.) and others were lost. Mr. Morgan's amendment proposed to reduce the little schedule proposed by Mr. Morgan (Dem. Mo.) and others were lost. Mr. Morgan's amendment proposed to reduce the duty on white lead from 11-2 to 1 cent per nound; on lead piping and shot from 11-4 cents per pound to 1 cent, and to place 1 cent per pound duty upon lead ore in lieu of the 15 per cent, in this bill, with the proviso added that silver lead ore should be duttable on its lead contents at the same rate, I cent per pound, according to assay at the port of entry. Mr. Childs (Rep., Ili.) proposed an amendment to the zinc schedule to make zinc in block and in pig duitable at one cent per pound; zinc in sheets, one and wornout zinc three-fourth of one cent per pound, it was lost.

Mr. Wilson then offered an amendment to increase the duty on morphine and all salts thereof from 50 to 75 cents per ounce. It was agreed to, and Mr. Wilson then brought forward a series of amendments comprehending the entire metal schedule agreed to by the Ways and Means Committee.

It is now said that Republican members of the Ways and Means Committee.

It is now said that Republican members of the Ways and Means Committee will not vote to recommit the Tariff bill, but will vote against it. Democrats who do not like the income tax and other features of the bill will have to vote to defeat it outright, rather than to post-pone by recommittal.

SAY PECKHAM MUST FAIL.

Senators Resent His Criticisms of the Hornblower Case.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The Peck-ham nomination for Associate Justice on the Supreme Court bench is expected by the Senate Judiciary Committee on Monday morning.

It is doubtfui if action will be taken then, although there is no disposition to delay a final conclusion.

There are not a few Senators who say unreservedly that Mr. Peckham will be rejected. Some of the Senators who are opposed to his confirmation have declared that the majority will be larger than that by which Hornblower was rejected.
